From Washington. Washington.

Washington, April i.—The Union has an apparently semi-official article on the Clayton-Belwer Treaty, saying that the President has never changed his policy concerning it; that the American construction will be substantially carried into effect; that the Mosquito protectorate and the Bay Islands will no doubt be surrendered to Nicaragua and Honduras respectively; that the substance of Sir William Gore Ousley's instructions has been communicated to this government only through Lord Napler; exceeded his instructions in any particular, he will no doubt be called to a rigid account.

The Navy Department has named the new third less than 100 merces to the country of the countr third-class steamers as follows: That at Portsmouth, the Mohican; at Boston, the Narraganset; at Brooklyn, the Iroquois; at Norfolk, the Dacotah; at Pensacola, the Seminole, and at this government only through Lord Napier; that it has full faith in the loyalty of the Brit-

Mare Island, the Saginaw. From official advices received to-day it appears that the stoam frigate Minnesota reached Bombay on the 16th of January, having on board Ex-Minister Reed, who left on the 25th for Suex. The Minnesota had visited Singapore and Penary, and several ports in Ceylon. She occasioned expressions of surprise and admiration, as she has ever done, in the East. In a few days she was to leave for Muscat, in Arabia, passing from there to the Cape of Good Hope, touching at Zanxibar.

A letter from the commander of the Savannah, dated at Vera Crus, March 11, confirms the former reports of the defeat of Miramon and the success of the constitutionalists in the nterior, as well as their advance on the city of

It is probable that Ex-Senator Jones will withdraw his declination of the Bagota Mission. There are at least twenty applicants for the vacant Commissionership of Patents and Indian affairs, which will not be decided upon for a week to come.

Sentenced to be Hung.

NEW YORK, April 1.—James Stevens, convicted of the murder of his wife, by poison, was yesterday sentenced, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, to be executed on the 6th of May next. The case will be brought up to the higher Courts, on exception.

River News.

Pittssung, April 1-M .- River eight feet one inch by the pier-mark, and falling. Weather clear and pleasant.

LOUISVILLE, April 1-M.-River falling fast, with six and a half feet water on the Falls for teamboats, and nine and a half feet in the Canal. Weather clear. Mercury 65. Sr. Louis, April 1-M .- The river became stationary last night, but is rising again this morning. Both the Missouri and Upper Mississippi are swelling rapidly. The Illinois is fulling slowly. Weather clear and warm.

Pittssens, April 1-P. M.-River eight feet nd falling. Weather mild and pleasant. Arand falling. Weather mild and pleasant. Arrived.—Key West from Louisville. Departed.— Fir Wm. Wallace for Louisville, and St. Louis Et. Louis, April I—P. M.—The river is again on the decline, having fallen about six inches to-day. The Missouri is still rising, with an excellent stage for boating. The Upper Mississippi is stationary at Dubuque, with eight feet water on the bar. Lake Pepin is still closed with ice twenty-seven inches thick. The Illinois is on the decline, but is still high. Weather clear and warm.

MEETING OF THE PIONEER ASSOCIATION .-Yesterday afternoon the Pioneer Association held their semi-monthly meeting, at the City Council Chamber, but it was not very largely attended. President Johnson occupied the chair.

The following Pioneers became members of the organization by signing the constitution: John K. Witherly, born at Thitford, Vt., March 31st, 1795; came to Columbia, O., Nov. 20th, 1806, Nicholas Goshon, born in Pennsylvania 1801; came to Ohio in 1810.

Ira S. Center, born in Cuyahoga County, N. Y., May 7th, 1783; came to Ohio May, 1807. Jonathan M. Lyon, born in Essex County, N. Y., March 17th, 1783; came to Ohio in September, 1790.

W. W. Badgely, born at Lexington, Ky., 1792; came to Ohio 1796.

Zebulan Strong, born in Orange County, Vt. September 7, 1788; came to Ohio September 12,

The Committee on Banquet reported that arrangements had been made to furnish the supper, and employed for the occasion the Newport Barracks Band.

After the transaction of some business of little importance, the association adjourned, to meet on the night of the festival at seven o'clock.

THE EARLY SLAVE CASE .- Our readers in all probability remember the fugitive slave case which came before United States Commissioner Brown, on Saturday last, and was postponed for the purpose of getting witnesses from Virginia. Yesterday the case was again called and the testimony of the witnesses heard.

Joseph Robinson, at whose house Early resided, when it was affirmed his bill of sale had been burned, had stated that there were three persons in Cabell County, Virginia, who had attested the papers giving the negro his freedom. They were sent for: but one of them was detained by a process of court, and therefore but two of them came, G. W. Fulneiler and Johnston Rusher; neither of them, however, knew anything about the transaction they were called upon to prove.

Judge Dickson, yesterday, issued a writ of Aubeus corpus against the U. S. Deputy Marshal, to show cause why he held the negro in custody, which case should also come up to-day: but as the negro, by a recent decision of Judge McLean, and also, we believe, of the Supreme Court, is held by Federal authority, we presume it will be dismissed as soon as the return he made. In this respect, this neems to be almost a counterpart to the famous Rosetta case. The prisoner was not sent to jail last night, but was kept in the Marshal's room, in the Custom-house building. The once will be continued to-day.

The present campaign for city officers is an extraordinarily quiet one. The usual coffeehouse jubilees, interspersed with whisky and bruised physiognomies, have been dispensed with. The occupation of street-corner politicians has departed, and, with the exception of n grand rally to be held to-night, no general demonstration has or will be made of sufficient vitality to stir up the blood of the patriotic voters. Politicians and the people are at last becoming eensible.

EDITOR DAILT PARSS-It is to be hoped that the voters of the Seventeenth Ward will, on Monday next, show, by a large and respectable majority, that Mr. Elsa Hill stands in that position of respectability to which he is entited—he having been, heretofore, a worthy and faithful officer. Yours, SUICIDE OF A KENTUCKY LAWYER,-A lawyer named R. G. Stewart, who resided in Marion County, Kentucky, committed suicide a few days ago by sticking a kind of spear into his throat. He had been dissipating for some time, and despairing of ever being able to recover from his unfortunate habit, raised his hand successfully against his life.

ONIO LEGISLATURE,-On Tuesday the SENATE made two calls on the Governor—one for the report of W. O. Collins, Esq., special examiner of the Treasury, and which has been heretofore suppressed; the other calling upon him to state whether he has in his possession official knowledge of a fraud to the amount of S10,600, in the stocks reported in the State Treasury for the pretended security of the cir-culating notes of the Sandusky City Bank; and what are the reasons this important fact has been suppressed so long from the Legislature and the public?

Governor Chase has transmitted the following replies:

"In answ answer to the first clause of the first res-"In answer to the first clause of the first resolution, I beg leave to state, that I have no information in respect to the subject-matter of your inquiry, except what is contained in the report of William D. Collins, Esq., special examiner of the Treasury, sent to the Senate for the information of the General Assembly, on the 19th of April, 1858, and printed in the Appendix to the Senate Journal, pages 242 to 271 inclusive, to which I respectfully refer you.

Several bills were passed. In the House the bill to amend the act to provide against the evils resulting from the sale of intoxicating liquors, was defeated, but was revived by a motion to reconsider. Among the bills passed was one to smend the Election laws, so as to prevent blacks and mulattoes from voting.

The principal section of the bill to disfranchise all persons having a visible taint of African blood, reads thus:

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That the judges of any election held under the authority of any law or laws of this State, shall reject the vote of any person offering to vote at such election, and claiming to be a white male citizen of the United States. to be a white male citizen of the United States whenever it shall appear to such judge or judges that the person so offering to vote has a distinct and visible admixture of African

WRECK OF THE BRITISH STEAMER JASSUR. The Correo, of Trinidad de Cuba, for March 19, says:

"On the 14th instant, Don Antonio Goicos chea, the Marine Ayudante of Santa Cruz, sent a dispatch to the office of Her Britannic Majesty' Consul, in this city, notifying him of the arrival at that port of the captain, four officers, and fifteen seamen, of the English war-steamer Jaseur, bound from Nicaragua to Jamaica, and shipwrecked on the night of February 26, having struck on the reef of Riocondar, leaving the crew no time to secure provisions. In con-sequence, these unfortunate men have been ten days without food of any sort, and during the first eight days without water. But fortunately they were at last rescued, having fallen in with two fishing-vessels, the Oreigan and Almestica, which conducted them, famished and fainting, to Santa Cruz, where the Ayudante of the Marine furnished them all the succor necessary in their unhappy condition.

"The moment the British Consul, in this city, received this dispatch, he transmitted a telegraph to His Excellency, the Captain-General, apprising him of the facts; whereupon His Excellency immediately ordered the steamer Don Juan de Austria to leave this port, take on board the shipwrecked party at Santa Cruz and convey them to Jamaica. He also ordered that the steamer Lezo should proceed, without loss of time, to search the Southern coast for the two boats, which contain thirty others escaped from the foundered vessel, and whose fate is involved in mystery."

A LAWYER EXPELLED FROM THE BAR .- John Percy, an attorney residing in the city of Albany, recently commenced sixty-seven suits for libel against the proprietors of the Evening Journal, one in every county in the State, and some in Pennsylvania. The gross amount of damages claimed reached the enormous sum of $1,300,000! On application of defendant's attorney, the suits were consolidated into one, and on trial the jury found a verdict for defendants, and the lawyer was subsequently expelled from the bar.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES. The arrivals yesterday were the Boston from Big sandy, with a fine trip. The Kanawha Valley, from Kanawha, had a good trip of freight. The Swallow ame in from Parkersburg last evening with a full load. The Isaac Shelby arrived from Kentucky River with 2.600 sacks grain; she returns to-day,

The departures include the Boston for Big Sandy, and the Courier for Wheeling, with fine trips of reight and passengers. The J. W. Hailman passed up for Pittsburg yesterday, after taking on a small ot of freight here. The Clara Dean left for the same port with a fine trip. The Tigross got off for Miscouri River with a light trip of freight, but full of people.

[By Telegraph.] Pittering, April 1.—The river is falling, with eight feet water in the channel by the pier-mark. Weather clear and pleasant. [By Telegraph.]

New Onleans, Merch 31.—The steamers Mars and indis, from Cincinnati, have arrived, and the Mad-St. Louis.-The Democrat of Thursday says

S7. Louis.—The Democrat of Thursday says:
Business is brisker here than we can describe it.
Business coming in rapidly from all quarters, with their holds full of freight, and cabins and decks crowded with passengers. There are so many boats at the wharf, the others coming in find it difficult to get to the landing. There is a constant turnoil on the wharf. The boats pile their freights mountain high on the wharf, and leave a very narrow avenue for the passenge of the thousands of drays, and the result is constant confusion. Twenty-three steamers and several loaded canal boats arrived yesterday, and about twelve more have arrived during lest night.
The scene on the levee to-day will be almost unparalteled.

LOUISVILLE.—The Courier of yesterday says:

The river is still receding fast, with only six and a half feet water on the falls last evening for steamboats. In the channel there were nine and a half feet water by the mark, the river having fallen four teen inches in the previous twenty-four hours.

The Flood is very the Mark, the river having fallen four teen inches in the previous twenty-four hours.

The Flood is very the Lower Mississippi.—From the officers of the John Ralne, from New Orleans, we learn that the flood continues to prevail, with fearful crevasses in every direction. They diver the flood, and will save the coast from inundation and disaster.

Below Point Lookout, in the bend at the head of Island 90, there is a crevasse one thousand yards, through which the water is pouring with all the fury of a mountain torrent. At Shipwith's Landing the river is two inches higher than it was at any time last year. This is owing to the fact that the breaks in the leves at Hagaman's and Point Lookout, just below, which were so disastrous last year, are now closed, and the river is confined to its banks.

Canno Overnoans.—We learn from our Cairo correspondent that the Queen of the West, bound for New Orleans, was so heavily laden as to be compelled to throw one hundred barrels of whisky overboard at Fistchey's Landing to prevent her sinking.

We regret to learn that Capt, George Evans, of the John Tompkins, had his left leg terribly crushed, and broken at the ankle, by the overturning of a heavy corn-mill. The mill was on the staging on the wharf, and while in the act of taking it on board, it fell from the plank and caught his foot. Surgeon Foreyth was called in, and he promptly splintered and bandaged the limb. Owing to this accident, expt. Exans was unable to go out on the boat, and Capt. Tom White takes charge in his place.
